Your document/ payment, which were submitted to the King County Superior Court Clerk, are being returned to you for the following reason:

- Personal, company, or payee representative checks are not acceptable for this type of transaction. Please send a cashier's check, money order, or certified check. Include your case number or invoice number and the purpose of payment.
- The number you referenced is not a King County Superior Court number/or is incorrect (a King County number has 9 digits and a case assignment area designation, such as XX-X-XXXXX-X SEA or KNT). Please check your records for the correct number and/or jurisdiction.
- When submitting document/payment(s) to the King County Superior Court Clerk's Office, always include your case number and /or invoice number and the purpose of payment. A King County Superior Court number has 9 digits and a case assignment area designation, such as XX-X-XXXXX-X SEA or KNT. The Clerk's Office cannot process payment(s) without the case number and invoice number.
- Other: The "original" notice of appeal is needed to process your document and there is a $250 filing fee required. (money order or cashier's check payable to: KC Superior Court)

When returning a corrected document/payment, please include this notice.

Sincerely,

By: T. LAMBETH
